

I sincerely hope that you reach the correct decision to have a CTS in Cambridge. All evidence indicates that this is not only a humane decision but that it is actually beneficial in dealing with the problem of drug abuse. There are enough examples in this and other countries to support that conclusion, so what logic can you bring to vote against it.

Look forward to seeing you make the right decision.

Sharon Boyd

Sent from my iPad