SCHEDULE "B"

TO BY-LAW 26-033

of the

CORPORATION OF THE CITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Description of Property

The property known municipally as 35 Oak Street or commonly referred to as "P.W. Gardiner House" is located on a corner lot on the east side of Oak Street and south of Ball Avenue in the former historic Town of Galt and now within the City of Cambridge. The large lot, which once provided a large backyard, is now mostly occupied by a two-storey addition and attached garage with asphalt driveway.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

The property at 35 Oak Street is of cultural heritage value for its design/physical, historical/associative, and contextual significance, as defined in Ontario Regulation 9/06 under the Ontario Heritage Act.

Design or Physical Value

The subject property located at 35 Oak Street is a representative example of a Queen Anne architectural style residence within the City of Cambridge as it demonstrates features of a Queen Anne style dwelling such as the two-and-a-half story massing, the asymmetrical layout, red running bond brick exterior, chimney stack, corner tower, prominent porch and ionic porch columns.

The subject property displays a high degree of craftsmanship including the various window types, sills, projecting eaves, decorative columns and railings, and a rich mix of textures and materials.

Historical or Associative Value

The house is constructed in the late 19th century and is associated with the prominent figure Peter Waters Gardiner, one of two prominent manufacturers of sash, doors, and millwork industry within the historic Town of Galt. The subject property is associated with the early industrial development and concentration of upper middle-class residencies in historic former Town of Galt.

Contextual Value

The P.W. Gardiner House is important in maintaining and supporting the mid- late 19th century character of Galt. It contributes to the historic character of the immediate and broader physical context of the street and the neighborhood through its architectural style, projecting gables & tower, decorative detailing, and prominent porch. The property also supports the legibility and character of the area as several residential streets were established when the neighbourhood of East Galt was formed.

The subject property at 35 Oak Street is a local and visual landmark due to its prominence within its context of Oak Street and East Galt in the late 19th century by the community. Also, its location as a large corner lot of Oak Street and Ball Avenue, ornamental architectural details, and setbacks are distinguishing features not shared by other buildings in its context.

Description of Heritage Attributes

The identified heritage attributes of the property municipally known as 35 Oak Street that contribute to its cultural heritage value include:

- Two-and-a-half-storey and asymmetrical layout of the Queen Anne Style building;
- Granite foundation;
- Red brick running bond exterior;

- Complex cross-gable roof with overhanging eaves, wide freeze board, decorative fascia, and dented soffit;
- Two-storey corner tower with finial and balustrade;
- Tall prominent red brick chimney stack;
- Full width porch spanning the width of the east facade with decorative trim, molded architrave, ionic columns, and balustrade;
- The projecting bays and dormer with decorative brackets;
- Enclosed sunroom on the south elevation with 1-over-1-windows and overhanging eaves;
- Variety of windows types, openings and detailing including muntins, sills, brick arches, and transoms

The interior of the building and any additions or outbuildings are excluded in this designation unless specified.
